

Summary on Conclusions and demands at the Caucus Meeting & Call for Women's Political Inclusion to mark the 2017 International Women's Day Themed: "From Rhetoric to Action: Gender Champions Speak for Women's Political Inclusion" On Wednesday, 1st March, 2017 At Chelsea Hotel, Central Area, Abuja.

Presented as a Charter of Demand to the Chairman, Inter - Party Advisory Council (IPAC)

Women across several political parties and other stakeholders convened in Abuja to mark the 2017 International Women's Day. As part of the activities lined up to commemorate this day, Nigerian Women's Trust Fund in partnership with Women in Politics Forum (supported by DFID's Voices for Change Project and the International Republican Institute) organized a caucus building and constituency engagement session for female legislators and politicians across the states.

The meeting agreed on the following as their demands:

1. 35% affirmative action for women in political parties in the areas of
 - Party candidacy
 - Party executives
 - Party nominations
2. Abolish delegate system and institute Option A4
3. Minimize candidacy imposition
4. Commit to prosecuting all offenders of violence within political environments.
